BOSTON RED SOX

MANAGER

22 DARRELL DEAN JOHNSON

Born August 25, 1927 in Ord, Nebraska... Resides in Pinole, Calif... Height 6-1... Weight 190... Married... four children.

He was a prime candidate for "Manager of the Year" in 1974 until Red Sox stopped hitting in September and finished third... Leading candidate for American League honors in 1975, however... He had two outstanding seasons in AAA baseball in Louisville and Pawtucket before taking over the Red Sox reins in 1974, and the nucleus of this division-winning team is youngsters he developed in the International League... First became a manager in 1963 after a long career as a catcher with the St. Louis Browns, the White Sox, the Yankees, the Cardinals, the Phillies, Cincinnati and Baltimore.

COACHES 31 DONALD RAY (DON) BRYANT

Born July 13, 1941, in Jasper, Florida... Resides in Jacksonville, Florida... Height 6-6... Weight 205... Single.

Finishes his second season as bullpen coach of the Red Sox, after duty as a player-coach with Johnson in 1973... He joined the Red Sox organization first in 1971 after a long minor league career and brief stints with the Cubs and Houston... He caught Don Wilson's no-hitter for the Astros over Cincinnati on May 1, 1969.

35 JOHN MICHAEL (JOHNNY) PESKY

Born September 27, 1919 in Portland, Oregon... Resides in Swampscott, Mass... Height 5-9... Weight 170... Married... one child.

An all-time Red Sox favorite, he returned to uniform in 1975 after six years as a member of the Red Sox broadcasting team... As a player with the Sox he set all-time club records for most hits by a rookie (205) and most singles in a season (172)... Played with Detroit and Washington after 10 years with the Red Sox... Later managed in the Detroit system, and the Red Sox farm system before taking over the Red Sox for the 1963 and 1964 seasons... Coached and managed for the Pirates before coming to Boston as a broadcaster.

36 EDWARD JOSEPH (EDDIE) POPOWSKI

(puh-POW-skee)

Born August 20, 1913 in Sayreville, N.J. and resides there... Height 5-4... Weight 155... Married... five children.

He has been connected with the Red Sox organization for well over 30 years as a player, scout, minor league manager and major league coach for the past nine years... In the Red Sox minor league system as a manager, his clubs finished out of the first division only seven times in 21 seasons and he directed four pennant winners... Earlier, he had played for the famed "House of David" team in the early 1930's.

32 STANLEY WILSON (STAN) WILLIAMS

Born September 14, 1936 in Enfield, N.H... Resides in Lakewood, Calif... Height 6-4... Weight 225... Married... two children.

Longtime major league pitcher (14 years) with the Dodgers, Indians, Twins, Cardinals, Yankees and Red Sox, he pitched for Darrell Johnson in Louisville in 1972... In 1974, he managed the Bristol Red Sox to the Eastern League title, and activated himself at one point and pitched a seven inning no-hitter... This is his first year as Red Sox pitching coach.

34 DONALD WILLIAM (DON) ZIMMER

Born January 17, 1931, in Cincinnati, Ohio... Resides in Treasure Island, Florida... Height 5-9... Weight 195... Married... two children.

This is his second season as the Red Sox third base coach... He became a minor league player-manager in 1967 after 12 major league seasons as an infielder with the Dodgers, Cubs, Mets, Cincinnati and Washington... He and Darrell Johnson were teammates briefly with Cincinnati... In 1971 he coached with Montreal, went to San Diego as coach in 1972, where he succeeded Preston Gomez and managed the Padres through the 1973 season.

Players 20 JUAN JOSE BENIQUEZ OF

(beh-NEE-kez)

Born May 13, 1950 in San Sebastian, Puerto Rico and resides there... Height 5-11... Weight 165... Married... two children.

He has played in the outfield, has been a designated hitter and even played eight games at third base in 1975... A hard swinging righthander and a former International League batting champion (.298 in Pawtucket in 1973) with good speed, he has been a valuable member of a strong Boston bench... Originally an infielder, he made the transition to the outfield in 1974.

39 TIMOTHY P. (TIM) BLACKWELL C

Born August 19, 1952 in San Diego, Calif. and resides there... Height 5-11... Weight 180... Married.

He was expected to return to AAA ball for more playing experience, but stayed with the Red Sox all season after "Pudge" Fisk was injured in spring training, and shared the catching duties with Montgomery in the early part of the season... A switch hitter, he hits better left than right.

7 RICHARD PAUL (RICK) BURLESON SS

(BURL-son)

Born April 21, 1951 in Lynwood, Calif... Resides in Acton, Mass... Height 5-10... Weight 165... Married.

To many observers he's the MVP of the Red Sox as their most indispensable player... Appeared in more games than any other Red Sox player in 1975 (158 of 160 played), and earned the nickname "Rooster" because of his aggressive play... The Red Sox "Rookie of the Year" in 1974, he is now firmly established as the best Red Sox shortstop in many years, and a particularly dangerous hitter with men in scoring position... He was the shortstop of the World Champion Connie Mack League team in 1969.

43 JIM SCOTT BURTON P

Born October 27, 1949 in Royal Oak, Michigan... Resides in Rochester, Michigan... Height 6-3... Weight 195... Single.

Came up to the Red Sox in early June after an early season 8-2 record with Pawtucket, including a no-hitter, and after a few starts, became the prime Red Sox short left-handed reliever... A graduate of the University of Michigan in 1971, he was the Red Sox' number one selection in the secondary draft in June of that year... Back problems hampered his progress in the minors... But no trouble this year.

1 BERNARDO (BERNIE) CARBO OF

Born August 5, 1947 in Detroit, Mich... Resides in Allen Park, Michigan... Height 6-0... Weight 175... Married... two children.

For two straight seasons, he has been a prime factor in the Red Sox offense in the early weeks, as he has found the famous Fenway wall to his liking... The Cincinnati Reds first draft pick, ahead of Johnny Bench, in 1965, he was the National League "Rookie of the Year" in 1970... Came to the Red Sox with Rick Wise from the Cardinals in the trade for Reggie Smith in October, 1973.

26 REGINALD LESLIE (REGGIE) CLEVELAND P

Born May 23, 1948 in Swift Current, Saskatchewan, Canada... Resides in St. Petersburg, Florida... Height 6-1... Weight 195... Married... two children.

He got three important wins in early September to help sew up the division title for the Red Sox after being a spot starter and long relief man in the early part of the season, but will be seen mostly in relief in the Series... A hard throwing righthander, he signed with the Cardinals after a brilliant high school career in track, baseball and curling in Canada... Was the National League "Rookie Pitcher of the Year" in 1971.

17 CECIL CELESTER COOPER 1B

Born December 20, 1949 in Brenham, Texas and resides there... Héight 6-2... Weight 185... Married.

He became the prime Red Sox designated hitter during the second half of the season after Jim Rice became an outfield regular and Cecil led all A.L. DH's in batting... Spelling Carl Yastrzemski at first base, he has become a fine fielder, but may be seen in the Series mostly as a pinch hitter... A plus .300 hitter at every stage of his minor league career.

5 ROBERT DENNIS (DENNY) DOYLE 2B

Born January 17, 1944 in Louisville, Kentucky... Resides in Laurel Springs, N.J... Height 5-9... Weight 165... Married... three children.

His acquisition from the Angels on June 13th was a key factor in the Red Sox success in 1975... When acquired he had only one hit in 15 AB's, after losing his starting second base job with the Angels to rookie Jerry Remy... With the Red Sox he put together the longest batting streak of the season in the American League at 22 games, and combined with Rick Burleson to make one of the best Red Sox second base combinations of many years... Selected at season's end by the BoSox Club of Boston as their "Man of the Year" after acquiring the nickname "Muggsie" for his scrappy play.

Born June 25, 1945 in Toledo, Ohio... Resides in Overland Park, Kansas... Height 6-1... Weight 190... Married... one child.

Used as the club's long man out of the bullpen, he led the Red Sox in saves, and his pitching was especially important in late August and early September when the Red Sox held off the challenge of the Orioles... He was one of the original players selected in the expansion draft by the Kansas City Royals and came to the Red Sox in a trade for Marty Pattin in October, 1973.

24 DWIGHT MICHAEL EVANS OF

Born November 3, 1951 at Santa Monica, Calif... Resides in Reading, Mass... Height 6-3... Weight 205... Married... one child.

He started slowly in 1975 and alternated with Carbo in right field, but by mid-season had re-established himself as the best fielding right fielder in the American League and a dangerous righthanded hitter... Rarely do opposing runners try for the extra base because of his strong and accurate throwing... Came up to the Red Sox in 1973 after being selected MVP in the International League... Orginally signed with the Red Sox as a third baseman, he also gives the Sox insurance at that position.

27 CARLTON ERNEST FISK C

Born December 26, 1947 in Bellows Falls, Vermont... Resides in Raymond, N.H... Height 6-2... Weight 210... Married... two children.

His importance to the Red Sox is evidenced by the fact that within a week after he returned to fulltime action in June, the Red Sox climbed into first place to stay in 1975... Last year, after missing the first 17 games because of a serious groin injury, he was on his way to a powerful season when he was sidelined for the rest of the year with torn knee cartileges which required surgery after a home plate collision on June 28th... This spring, trying gamely to come back after the knee operation, his arm was broken in an exhibition game and he was out of action until June 23rd... Although he missed some time later with a split finger he had impressive batting figures the rest of the way, leading the club in RBI's in relation to times at bat... In 1972, he was the first unanimous choice for American League "Rookie of the Year".

2 DOUGLAS LEE (DOUG) GRIFFIN 2B

Born June 4, 1947 in South Gate, Calif... Resides in Peabody, Mass... Height 6-0... Weight 160... Married... two children.

After the arrival of Denny Doyle, he was platooned the rest of the season, and became the club's leading pinch-hitter when not alternating at second base... He has been injury prone during his four years with the Red Sox, but avoided serious injury in 1975, after a successful off-season back operation... First came to the Red Sox from the California Angels in October, 1970.

12 ROBERT LOWELL (BOB) HEISE IF

(rhymes with ice)

Born May 12, 1947 in San Antonio, Texas... Resides in Vacaville, Calif... Height 5-11... Weight 170... Married... two children.

One of the most valuable members of a strong Red Sox bench, he has performed excellently at second, third and short throughout the year, after coming from the Angels in an off-season trade for Tommy Harper... Earlier he had been a valuable utility player for the Mets, Giants, Brewers and Cardinals... Intense competitor.

37 WILLIAM FRANCIS (BILL) LEE, III P

Born December 28, 1946 in Burbank, Calif... Resides in Stoughton, Mass... Height 6-3... Weight 210... Married... two children.

The Red Sox "Space Man" is an outspoken free thinker on almost any subject, but he's also the winningest Red Sox lefthander since Mel Parnell and a key to Red Sox success in 1975... Although he struggled in early September after reaching the 17 win plateau, earlier he had contributed significant victories, notably a 1-0 win over Catfish Hunter in Shea Stadium in late July when the Red Sox took command... The Red Sox player representative, he signed after a brilliant career at Southern California, where he had a four-year 38-8 record and two wins in two days to lead the Trojans to the 1968 College World Series title.

19 FREDRIC MICHAEL (FRED) LYNN CF

Born February 3, 1952 in Chicago, Illinois... Resides in El Monte, Calif... Height 6-1... Weight 185... Married.

The leading candidate in the American League for both MVP and "Rookie of the Year" honors, and along with Jim Rice, one half of the best rookie combination to break in with any club in the history of the game... A consistent hitter all season, and an outstanding fielder with a great arm... The Red Sox drive to the pennant was triggered by Lynn's record-breaking performance against the Tigers in Detroit on June 18th, when he went five for six, including three home-runs and a triple, with 10 RBI's and 16 total bases... He played regularly for three Southern California national championship teams and was selected All-America in 1973 and 1972 when he led the nation's collegians in home-runs... Started at Southern California as a defensive halfback but gave up football for baseball.

16 RICHARD ALLEN (RICK) MILLER OF

Born April 19, 1948 in Grand Rapids, Michigan... Resides in Boston, Mass... Height 6-0... Weight 180... Married.

He was the victim of the arrival of the two great rookie outfielders, Lynn and Rice, and saw the least action of his four year Red Sox career... A superior fielder and runner... He was the Red Sox second choice in 1969, after leading the Big Ten in batting for Michigan State and making the All-America team... In 1974, he was the "Red Sox Man of the Year" selected by the BoSox Club of Boston... He is married to Carlton Fisk's sister.

10 ROBERT EDWIN (BOB) MONTGOMERY C

Born April 16, 1944 in Nashville, Tenn... Resides in Dedham, Mass... Height 6-1... Weight 205... Single.

One of the finest backup catchers in baseball over the last five years... He alternated during the early part of the season with Blackwell while the club waited for Fisk's return... Then, in a tough series with Milwaukee in early September, his bat played a big role in a couple of come-from-behind Red Sox rallies... He is one of baseball's better golfers, a licensed pilot and a model train enthusiast.

29 ROGELIO (ROGER) MORET P

(row-HEE-lee-oh more-RET)

Born September 16, 1949 in Guayama, Puerto Rico and resides there... Height 6-4... Weight 175... Single.

For the second year in the last three he had an amazing won-lost percentage, best in the league (14-3....824) and for the third year in a row, he fashioned his winning record after spending the first half of the season in the bullpen... Once in the starting rotation he won some big games in July and August with his blazing fast ball... Each year he has shown signs of pitching brilliance, and with maturity could be an even bigger winner.

6 AMERICO (RICO) PETROCELLI 3B

(peh-troe-SELL-ee)

Born June 27, 1943 in Brooklyn, N.Y... Resides in Lynnfield, Mass... Height 6-0... Weight 190... Married... four children.

At one point in 1975, he thought seriously about donning glasses for active play, and in mid-August was disabled because of dizziness and headaches... The trouble was discovered in his inner ear, and traceable to his being hit on the head by a Jim Slaton fastball in September, 1974... In September his big bat came to life in key situations, as his ear problem was successfully handled with medication... He and Yaz are the only Red Sox veterans from the 1967 "Impossible Dream" team... in 1969, as a shortstop, he hit 40 home-runs to break a 20-year record.

45 RICHARD HENRY (DICK) POLE P

Born October 13, 1950 in Trout Creek, Michigan and resides there... Height 6-3... Weight 210... Married.

Made it to stay this year, after shuttling back and forth from Boston to Pawtucket throughout the 1974 season... Once he joined the starting rotation, he was pitching well until felled by a Tony Muser line drive which broke his right cheek bone on June 30th, as he was beating Jim Palmer in a key game... After missing the months of July and August, he returned to action on September 1st and came through with another big win over the Orioles... just married in September.

14 JAMES EDWARD (JIM) RICE LF

Born March 8, 1953 in Anderson, South Carolina and resides there... Height 6-2... Weight 200... Married.

The other half of the Red Sox "Dynamic Duo" with Fred Lynn... Both hit over .300 with 100-plus RBI's (.309 and 102 RBI for Rice)... Started the season as the Red Sox designated hitter, but worked hard on his fielding to become the regular left fielder... Henry Aaron points to Jim as one young player with a chance to surpass his all time home run record, because of his youth and strength... Regarded by many as the strongest hitter to appear in the league in years and already author of several tape measure homeruns... He was the Sporting News "Minor League Player of the Year" in 1974 when he won the International League batting title... Sidelined for the season on Sept. 21 with a broken left hand.

41 DIEGO PABLO SEGUI P

(dee-AY-go; Segui rhymes with McGee)

Born August 17, 1938 in Oriente, Cuba... Resides in Kansas City, Kansas... Height 6-0... Weight 180... Married... four children.

The oldest man on the Red Sox squad... He had an in and out season for the Red Sox, but came through with some good late season performances... He came to Boston with Reggie Cleveland in December, 1973, the fifth major league team he has worked for.

23 LUIS CLEMENTE TIANT P

(TEE-ahnt)

Born November 23, 1940 in Havana, Cuba... Resides in Milton, Mass... Height 5-11... Weight 190... Married... three children.

Beat Jim Palmer 2-0 on September 16th in a "must" game for Boston... He was on his way to his third consecutive 20 game season in mid-August when his back started to give him trouble, and he lost 5 out of 7 games... Participated in one of the more emotional scenes in recent years in baseball, when his father, Luis, Sr., saw his son pitch in the major leagues for the first time and threw out the first ball from the mound at Fenway Park... Luis, Senior was allowed to visit the United States on a special visa from Cuba and will be on hand for the Series... Luis' career seemed ended when he failed in a trial with Richmond of the Braves organization in 1971, but proved himself under Darrell Johnson with the Louisville team and has been one of the top winners in baseball since... His complex pitching motion, and his success have made him one of the all time Boston favorites.

38 JAMES ARTHUR (JIM) WILLOUGHBY P

Born January 31, 1949 in Salinas, Calif... Resides in Gustine, Calif... Height 6-3... Weight 198... Married... one child.

With Denny Doyle, he became one of the most valuable mid-season Red Sox acquisitions ever... He joined the club on July 4th, after an 8-6 record with Tulsa in the Cardinal organization, and after one bad outing, proceeded to either win or save 13 of the next 15 games he was involved in... Has a deceptive motion and a good sinking fast ball... Signed originally by the Giants and is a candidate for a degree in electrical engineering at the University of California at Berkeley.

Born September 13, 1945 in Jackson, Michigan... Resides in Chesterfield, Missouri... Height 6-2... Weight 195... Married... two children.

One of the major keys to Boston's success in 1975, he came back from a frustrating 1974 first season with the Red Sox, to establish a career high of 19 victories... In 1974, he had shoulder miseries, a broken finger, and his worst major league season... He was a National League All-Star twice—with the Phils in 1971 and with the Cardinals in 1973... Came to the Red Sox as the key to the Reggie Smith trade in October, 1973... One of baseball's better hitting and fielding pitchers.

8 CARL MICHAEL YASTRZEMSKI 1B

(yas-TREM-skee)

Born August 22, 1939 in Southampton, New York... Resides in Boston, Mass... Height 5-11... Weight 188... Married... four children.

Although "Captain Carl's" contributions didn't match his performance of 1967 when he personally led the Red Sox to the pennant, he had another solid season, despite playing the last few months with an injured left shoulder... He was right up there with youngsters Rice, Burleson and Lynn in gamewinning RBI's and once more was among the league leaders in runs scored... He would like to duplicate his 1967 performance in the Series when he batted .400 in a losing seven game effort... His credentials include twelve selections to the American League All-Star team, three batting titles, six Gold Gloves and the Triple Crown and MVP in 1967... Veteran of 15 Red Sox seasons.

ROD CAREW WINNER OF "JOE CRONIN AWARD"

Rodney Carew, winner of his fifth league batting title and fourth in a row, was presented with the "Joe Cronin Award" for significant achievement in 1975 prior to the opening game of the American League Championship Series at Boston on Saturday, October 4th. A nationwide NBC-TV audience saw the third annual award presented to Carew by Mr. Cronin, the American League chairman and "Hall of Famer".

No American Leaguer has captured as many batting titles since Ty Cobb took nine straight (1907-15). Carew's lifetime average of .328 is the highest of any active player in the major leagues with 1000 or more at bats.

Nine times an A. L. All-Star, Rod had his biggest season in RBIs (80) and home runs (14) in 1975. Over the last four seasons in which he captured consecutive batting crowns he has 783 hits in 2249 at bats for a .348 average. He has averaged 38 stolen bases the last three years.

CINCINNATI REDS

MANAGER 10 GEORGE LEE (SPARKY) ANDERSON

Born February 22, 1934 in Bridgewater, S. D... Resides in Thousand Oaks, Calif... Batted and threw right... Height 5-10... Weight 170... Married... three children.

Led Cincinnati to fourth Western Division championship in past six seasons... Reds have played at .600 clip under his leadership... Only Hall of Famer Bill McKechnie with 747 wins in nine years has more with Reds than Anderson... Played only one season in majors as second baseman for Phils in 1959... Was called "Sparky, Who?" when appointed manager of Reds in October of 1969.

COACHES

2 ALEXANDER PETER (ALEX) GRAMMAS

Born April 3, 1926 in Birmingham, Ala... Resides in Birmingham... Batted and threw right... Height 6-0... Weight 177... Married... four children.

Third base coach with Reds since 1970... A former Reds infielder, also saw major league service with Cardinals and Cubs.

18 THEODORE BERNARD (TED) KLUSZEWSKI

Born September 10, 1924 in Argo, III... Resides in Cincinnati... Batted and threw left... Height 6-2... Weight 250... Married.

One of the all-time great Reds sluggers and still holds Cincinnati record for most home runs in a season, 49 in 1954. Cincinnati hitting coach given much credit for improved bats of Ken Griffey, Cesar Geronimo and Dave Concepcion... Hit over .300 seven times in career and owned .298 lifetime average with 279 home runs.

3 GEORGE RICHARD SCHERGER

Born November 20, 1920 in Dickinson, N.D... Resides in Charlotte, N.C.... Batted and threw right... Height 5-8... Weight 175... Married... four children.

Cincinnati's first base coach and Sparky Anderson's first manager in professional baseball in 1953 at Santa Barbara... Had 14-year minor league playing career and was minor league manager for 18 seasons before joining Anderson's staff... Has been in baseball since 1940.

4 LAWRENCE WILLIAM (LARRY) SHEPARD

Born April 3, 1919 in Lakewood, Ohio... Resides in Lincoln, Neb... Batted and threw right... Height 5-11... Weight 180... Married... one child.

Cincinnati's pitching coach... Credited with developing some of Reds' fine young pitchers... Pitched 13 years in minor leagues and was minor league manager 18 seasons... Was Pittsburgh manager in 1968-69.

BOSTON RED SOX HIGHLIGHTS

The Red Sox season started auspiciously on April 8 with Boston beating Milwaukee 5-2 at Fenway. Hank Aaron, playing in his first A. L. game, and Tony Conigliaro, coming back after a three-year layoff, got standing ovations. Tony C. got the first Boston hit of the season and three days later the first home run, but eventually was returned to Pawtucket and retired to become a broadcaster. The Red Sox played strongly the first half of the season even without Carlton Fisk, and they presaged their playoff win over Oakland by sweeping the A's May 19-20-21 at Fenway Park. Tiant breezed to an 11-5 win in the opener, then Bill Lee beat Vida Blue 7-0 with a 2-hit, 1-walk 78-pitch masterpiece. Then the Sox completed the sweep with a 7-3 win powered by Yastrzemski's grand slam. On May 24 Lee pitched his second shutout of the week, 6-0 over California, to put Boston back into first place after a month's absence from the top spot.

June was Fred Lynn's great month, as his display of consistency and brilliance won him A. L. Player of the Month honors. He reached base in each of the Red Sox' 31 games in June, and re-wrote the record book on June 18 in Detroit. He exploded for three home runs, a triple and a single for 10 RBI and 16 total bases. He tied the A. L. record for total bases and became only the ninth player in history to have 10 RBI in a game, while setting a major league rookie record for total bases and tying rookie records for homers and RBI.

The Yankees led Boston and the division by a half-game when they came into Fenway June 26-29. Boston won three of four and set a Boston record for a four-game series with 136,615 fans. Moret beat Catfish Hunter 3-2 in the finale.

Between July 7 and July 19 Boston won 10 consecutive games to stretch its lead from only one game over New York and Milwaukee to 61/2 games. One outstanding victory came over the Twins on July 9; the Red Sox won 9-8 after trailing 7-1, and hit four home runs. Boston hit .338 and scored 82 runs in the ten games.

Boston slammed the door on the Yankees in a July 27 doubleheader in New York. The first two games of the series had been split, and the Yanks needed a sweep to pull within six games. Instead, Boston swept, winning 1-0 and 6-0 behind Lee and Moret. In the crucial opener, Lee and Hunter pitched scoreless ball into the ninth. Then Lynn reached on an error, stole second, and was driven in by Miller. In the last of the ninth, Lynn made what several observers called one of the greatest catches of all time to dash New York's hopes. He made a diving catch running away from the plate to stab Graig Nettles' drive to the left-center wall.

Now Baltimore was the only competition, and Boston led the Birds by 9½ on August 3. From July 9 to August 4 Denny Doyle compiled a 22-game hitting streak, tops in the A. L. in 1975. Lynn was second with a 20-game streak. On September 3-4, Boston swept a vital series in Baltimore that could have brought the Orioles within four games. Wise beat Jim Palmer in the opener 3-2 on Cooper's home run in the tenth inning. Cooper replaced Rice as the designated hitter on July 1 and led all the DH's in average; Rice wound up second. On September 4, Boston won 3-1 as Yastrzemski induced a wild throw by continuing to run after he had been forced at third.

The Sox revelled in glory as they crushed the Brewers 20-6 with 24 hits on September 6. On September 15, Lynn and Rice each drove in their 100th RBIs of the year on consecutive pitches in a 9-7 win over Milwaukee. Baltimore hung tough and was only 5½ back coming into Boston September 16-17. They needed a sweep but Tiant beat Palmer 2-0 in the opener on a brilliant five-hitter. The Orioles won the next game, but Boston was in command and clinched the pennant on September 27 after rain had disrupted most of the season's final week. The Red Sox won 9 of 11 going into the clinching Saturday.

Super rookies Lynn and Rice led Boston statistically. They were the first pair of rookies ever to both bat over .300 and drive in over 100 runs (Lynn .331, 105; Rice .309, 102). Lynn led the league in slugging average, runs and doubles and was second in batting, establishing himself as a strong candidate for Rookie of the Year and even MVP honors.

AMERICANS HOLD EDGE

The American League holds a 43-28 advantage in World Series play to date since the first series in 1903.

DESIGNATED HITTERS VIE FOR NEW AWARD

These are the 12 American League designated hitters with 200 or more at-bats as a DH in 1975. They are candidates for baseball's newest award, the "Outstanding Designated Hitter" award, which will be presented at the January baseball banquet of the Manchester (N.H.) Union Leader. The winner will be selected by a vote of writers, broadcasters, and club public relations directors.

Overall, the 1975 designated hitters had 222 home runs, compared to 167 last year and to the 1972 pitchers' total of 20.

CINCINNATI REDS HIGHLIGHTS

REDS' FANS — The rabid followers of the Cincinnati Reds have to be rated with baseball's finest when considering how they have turned out to view their favorites the past six seasons since the new Riverfront Stadium has been in operation. Since the grand opening of the beautiful new stadium on June 30, 1970 the Reds' "aficionados" have clicked the turnstiles to a total attendance of 11,413,660. This averages out to 1,902,277 per year, which is an astonishing figure since the population of Cincinnati is only 500,000, the smallest of any National League city. The Reds' attendance this year was 2,315,603, an all-time club high, and second only in the majors to the Los Angeles Dodgers' attendance of 2,539,349. The 1970-1974 figures for the Cincinnati club:

1970 — 1,803,568 1971 — 1,501,122 1972 — 1,611,459 1973 — 2,017,601 1974 — 2,164,307

NL  NL  NL  NL  NL

THE "BIG RED MACHINE" — The "Big Red Machine" pulverized all opposition in the NL West division this year and made a shambles of the race in winning by 20 games over its nearest runner-up — the Los Angeles Dodgers. The Reds finished with 108 victories, the third highest total in NL history and the most since the 1909 Pirates won 110.

Manager Sparky Anderson kept the "machine" well-oiled as the Reds displayed their alacrity by leading the league in stolen bases (168). Leading the larcenous pack was the super-thief, little Joe Morgan, with 67 steals (2nd in the NL), followed by Dave Concepcion (33), Ken Griffey (16), Cesar Geronimo (13) and surprisingly, Johnny Bench, who was next with a perfect 11 swipes in as many attempts. As a club, the Reds' stolen base percentage was an incredible .821, having been caught stealing only 36 times.

The "machine's" armor, scarred only 54 times in 162 battles, can proudly fly other impressive standards, such as: led the league in RBI's (779); Walks (691), of which Joe Morgan accounted for 132, to cop the individual lead; Runs (840), of which Pete Rose scored 112 to lead the league ("Charley Hustle" also led the NL in doubles (47) for the second straight year); Least Errors (102); and Shut Out the Fewest Times by Opposing Pitchers (5).

NL  NL  NL  NL

THOSE IRREPRESSIBLE REDS — The Cincinnati club set a scorching pace in setting a NL record for most wins at home, season — winning 64, while losing only 17, for a scintillating .790 percentage mark. The Reds also had the league's longest winning streak — 10 games (July 4 through July 14). At one stage during the season (May 21 through July 13), the club won 41 of 50 games, only slightly off the record pace set by the 1906 Cubs who ravaged the opposition in 44 of 50 games.

CINCINNATI, SAN DIEGO SET ATTENDANCE RECORDS IN N.L.

The National League drew a total attendance of 16,600,490 during the 1975 season. Cincinnati (2,315,603) and San Diego (1,281,747) both set all-time records for their respective cities. Los Angeles led the league again with 2,539,349. In all, eight of the 12 clubs reached the one million mark.

The year's league total was a decrease of 377,824 from the 1974 figure of 16,978,314. Following are the 1975 home attendance figures for each club:

CLUB	1975

AMERICAN LEAGUE ATTENDANCE WAS UP IN 1975

The American League was headed for an all-time attendance record in 1975 (running substantially ahead from the first weeks of the season) until adverse weather played havoc with the schedule the last two weeks of the season. Nine games were cancelled altogether, including several attractive dates, and others were doubled up in order to complete play vital to the races. For the third year in a row, the league topped 13 million and showed an increase of 164,155 over 1974.

For the first time in A. L. history, nine clubs topped a million — and one club just missed. Unofficial final figures follow:

AMERICAN LEAGUE SEASON HIGHLIGHTS—1975

THE BIG STEAL... With the fleet-footed California Angels leading the way, 1975 was the year of the Stolen Base in the American League. Eight clubs registered more than 100 stolen bases this season. Not since 1919 have as many teams in either league stolen 100 or more bases. The Angels led the way with 220, followed by Oakland with 183 and Kansas City with 153. Other clubs to pass the 100 mark were Cleveland (106), Baltimore (104), New York and Texas (102 each), and the Chicago White Sox (101).

A'S, YANKS TOP ROAD DRAWS... The champion Oakland-A's led the American League in road attendance in '75 with a draw of 1,438,332, followed closely by the New York Yankees with 1,437,333, the 30th consecutive year the Yanks have exceeded a million fans on the road. The Eastern Division Champion Boston Red Sox attracted 1,285,495.

BRETT A "BIG HIT". . . George Brett, Kansas City's brilliant sophomore third baseman, beat out batting champion Rod Carew to record the most hits in the league this year - 195. The 22-year-old also was among the league leaders in slugging percentage, average, runs, total bases, triples and doubles.

AL  AL  AL  AL **

RICH GOSSAGE OF THE Chicago White Sox was the American League "Fireman of the Year" with 26 "saves" and nine wins for 35 total points, to tie Al Hrabosky of the St. Louis Cardinals for major league honors. His 1.84 ERA led the A. L.

AL  AL  AL  AL **

SPEAKING OF RELIEF... The Oakland A's firemen "saved" 44 games, most in the league (Rollie Fingers - 24, Jim Todd - 12, Paul Lindblad - 7 and Vida Blue added one) and added 27 wins in the process.

AL  AL  AL  AL **

SLUGGER DELUXE... George Scott of the Milwaukee Brewers topped the A. L. in RBIs with 109, followed by K. C. John Mayberry's 106. Scott tied the A's Reggie Jackson in home runs at 36 and Scott also led in total bases with 318 followed by 303 for both Jackson and Mayberry. Boston's Fred Lynn led in slugging percentage with .566; Mayberry was .547 and Cleveland's "comeback king" Boog Powell was at .524.

AL  AL  AL  AL **

ROOKIE STARTERS STAR... A trio of American League rookies made news in '75. Dennis Leonard, 22-year-old K. C. Royal, posted a 15-7 mark for the runnerup Western team; Dennis Eckersley, 21 this week, was third in the league with a 2.60 ERA and a 13-7 record for the Cleveland Indians and Jim Hughes of Minnesota was 16-14 in his first season.

AL  AL  AL  AL  AL

CY YOUNG CONTENDERS... Jim Palmer of the Baltimore Orioles, with a spectacular comeback from a sore arm season in '74, won 23 games (2.09 ERA) to tie Jim "Catfish" Hunter of the New York Yankees for the major league lead in victories. Hunter was second in ERA in the A. L. with 2.58. Oakland's Vida Blue won 22.

AL  AL  AL  AL  AL

STRIKEOUT KING . . . California's Angels retained their strikeout king, but it wasn't Nolan Ryan this year, although Ryan pitched his fourth no-hitter early in the season and was en route to another 300 strikeout season when a variety of injuries affected his work. Left-handed Frank Tanana, at 22 another of the American League's long list of budding stars, led the majors in strikeouts with 269.

AL  AL  AL  AL

ROOKIES OF THE YEAR?... It's been 37 years since the Cleveland Indians brought up Ken Keltner and Geoff Heath who produced a sensational slugging first season, but no pair of rookies has ever captured the imagination of the fans as have Fred Lynn and Jim Rice of the Boston Red Sox. Unfortunately, Rice is out of the series with a broken left hand. Henry Aaron predicts that Rice will become a leading candidate to break his home run record some day. Stan Musial, a National League immortal, commented on Lynn: "All you have to do is watch him to know he's no flash in the pan. Lynn will last."

FIFTY YEARS AGO . . . PIRATES EDGE SENATORS

Coming from a three games to one deficit and trailing in the seventh and final game 4-0, the Pittsburgh Pirates rallied to win the 1925 World Series. Kiki Cuyler, Pittsburgh right-fielder, doubled with the bases full off Walter Johnson in the gloom of a rainy, overcast day to win the game and series for the Pirates. Johnson had allowed only one run to score in winning the first and fourth games of the series.

Roger Peckinpaugh, chosen the American League's Most Valuable Player on the eve of the series, was the goat, committing eight errors.

... AND TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO YANKEES SWEEP PHILLIES, 4-0

It's a quarter century ago that the New York Yankees, in the second year of their record-breaking streak of five consecutive World Championships under the late Casey Stengel, defeated the Whiz Kids from Philadelphia in four games. It was pitching and defense that spelled success for the Yanks. Yankee pitching had a combined ERA of only 0.73, allowing only three earned run in the series. Joe DiMaggio and Yogi Berra hit the only home runs in the 1950 Classic.

1975 NATIONAL LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS

BILL MADLOCK—In winning the NL batting crown with a .354 mark, the Cub third baseman became only the second non-outfielder to win the title in the last 15 years. Strangely enough, the only other one was another third baseman — St. Louis' Joe Torre, who hit .363 in 1971.

NL  NL  NL  NL

NO-HITTER — The only no-hitter in the NL this season was accomplished by the strong right arm of tall Ed Halicki of the San Francisco Giants in whitewashing the New York Mets 6-0 in the second game of a DH on August 24. The Mets' Tom Seaver came within a pitch of duplicating the feat a month later when the Cubs' Tarzan Wallis blooped a single with two out in the 9th inning. The Cubs garnered two more hits off Seaver in the 10th inning and won the game 1-0 in the 11th inning off Skip Lockwood.

NL  NL  NL  NL  NL

BURT HOOTON — The burly, Dodger righthander, acquired on May 2 from the Cubs for pitchers Geoff Zahn and Eddie Solomon, finished the season with 12 consecutive wins, giving him a season's total of 18 wins and nine losses. The win streak started back on July 24.

NL  NL  NL  NL  NL

RENNIE STENNETT — In a 22-0 rout of the Cubs on September 16, the Pirates' hard-hitting second baseman collected seven straight hits to tie the all-time major league record for a nine-inning game. Baltimore's Wilbert Robinson set by in 1892. The 24-year-old Panamanian also hit in his first two at-bats the next day to run his streak to nine straight before getting out.

NL  NL  NL  NL  NL

JOHN BENCH — Overshadowed by the brilliance of his batting and fielding prowess is Bench's base-stealing ability. The startling fact is that the star catcher led the NL in base-stealing percentage this year for players stealing 10 or more bases. "John the Jet" zoomed for a perfect 11 steals in 11 attempts. Watch out, Joe Morgan!

NL  NL  NL  NL  NL

20-GAME WINNERS — The Mets' Tom Seaver and the Padres' Randy Jones were the NL's only 20-game winners, with won-lost records of 22-9 and 20-12, respectively. Jones, the Padres' super southpaw, edged "Tom Terrific" in winning the NL's ERA title with a brilliant 2.24 mark to Seaver's 2.38.

NL  NL  NL  NL  NL

SEAVER'S STRIKEOUT RECORD — In striking out 243 batters this year, the Mets' ace righthander became the first pitcher in major league history to strike out 200 or more men in eight straight seasons, thereby breaking the record held jointly by the illustrious Walter Johnson and Rube Waddell, both of whom pitched in the American League.

NL  NL  NL  NL  NL

WILLIE McCOVEY — The veteran Padre first baseman hit the 16th grand slam of his brilliant career on May 30 at the Mets' Shea Stadium, tying him with Hank Aaron for the NL record. The mighty blow was also his third pinch-hit grand slam, tying the major league record held by Ron Northey of the Cardinals and Cubs and Rich Reese of the Twins.

NL  NL  NL  NL **

DAVE CASH — The second-base member of the Phillies' flashy keystone duo set a major league mark in appearing for 699 official at-bats, edging by one the mark Matty Alou of the Pirates set in 1969.

NL  NL  NL  NL  NL

DAVEY LOPES— The speedy Dodger second sacker led the league in thefts, swiping 77 bags in 89 attempts. At one point during the season, he purloined 38 straight, breaking the major league record of 31 held by Max Carey of the Pirates, set in 1922.

NL  NL  NL  NL  NL

ROOKIE OF THE YEAR BATTLE — Some strong candidates have emerged to do battle for this prestigious award: John Montefusco, Rawly Eastwick, Tom Underwood, John Candelaria, Gary Carter, Larry Parrish, Dan Warthen and Mike Vail. The Giants' Montefusco garnered the most wins and was 15-9 overall with a fine 2.88 ERA. The bumptious "Count" also recorded the most SO's by a rookie pitcher (215) since the Phils' Grover Cleveland Alexander set the record with 227 strikeouts in 1911. Rawly Eastwick of the Reds tied Al Hrabosky of the Cardinals for most saves (22) and fashioned a 5-3 won-lost mark and a 2.60 ERA while appearing in 58 games as a reliever. The Phils Tom Underwood was second in wins to Montefusco with a 14-13 won-lost record and a 4.15 ERA. John Candelaria of the Pirates was 8-6 with a 2.75 ERA. The Expos can boast of a strong contingent of rookies — Gary Carter, who hit .270 with 17 HR's and 68 RBI's; Larry Parrish, .274 with 10 HR's and 65 RBI's; and pitcher Dan Warthen, who was 8-6 with a 3.11 ERA while functioning both as reliever and starter. The Mets' Mike Vail, who was purchased from Tidewater on August 17, was a late-season contender since his 162 at-bats qualify him this year. Vail took off like a comet and recorded the longest hitting streak in the NL this year, hitting safely in 23 consecutive games from August 22 through September 15, and batted .302 as a Met.

NL  NL  NL  NL  NL

LOU BROCK — The Cardinal speedster had quite a comedown from his base-stealing major league record of 118 set last season, but his 56 thefts this year enabled him to extend his own major league record to 11 consecutive years of stealing 50 or more bases.

OFFICIAL SCORERS

Three writers, all members of the BBWAA, are assigned the important duty of serving as official scorers of the World Series by the Commissioner's office. The president of the BBWAA, Charley Feeney, is one of the scorers. The two others represent the two cities playing in the World Series. This year they are Clif Keane of the Boston Globe and Bob Hertzel of the Cincinnati Enquirer.

BROADCASTS HEARD AROUND THE WORLD

The NBC Network broadcasts of the World Series, carried by Armed Forces Radio and Television Service (AFRTS), will be heard by American civilian and military personnel stationed at bases and installations in Southeast Asia, Europe, the Philippines, Korea, the Canal Zone and Japan. There will also be foreign transmission to Canada (French), the Dominican Republic, Bermuda, Venezuela, Guatemala, Panama, El Salvador, Nicaragua, Honduras and Costa Rica. AFRTS Television will also provide live satellite feeds of Games One and (if necessary) Seven.

NBC and the World Series

The NBC Television Network has provided exclusive, live coverage of Major League Baseball's World Series for 29 consecutive years.

Startling advances have been made in the electronic sports journalism of television. In 1947, when NBC-TV telecast its first World Series, the network consisted of just four stations—New York City, Washington, Philadelphia and Schenectady, New York. Three black-and-white cameras were employed for coverage of that year's Series. In 1947 there were only 150,000 television sets capable of receiving the NBC signals. Contrast with that the fact that this year there are just slightly under 70,000,000 TV homes in the United States in NBC's 220-station coverage area.

World Series action will have a total viewing audience that will exceed 100,000,000 persons. The games will also be beamed over the NBC Radio Network throughout the United States, as well as to American Forces Radio and Television Service (AFRTS) affiliates the world over.

Nine "hard" color cameras and one hand-held "mini-camera" will be employed to record the on-field action. Director Harry Coyle, who has been a party to each World Series covered by NBC-TV, marks 29 years of being in the director's chair at World Series time.

Curt Gowdy

Joe Garagiola

Tony Kubek

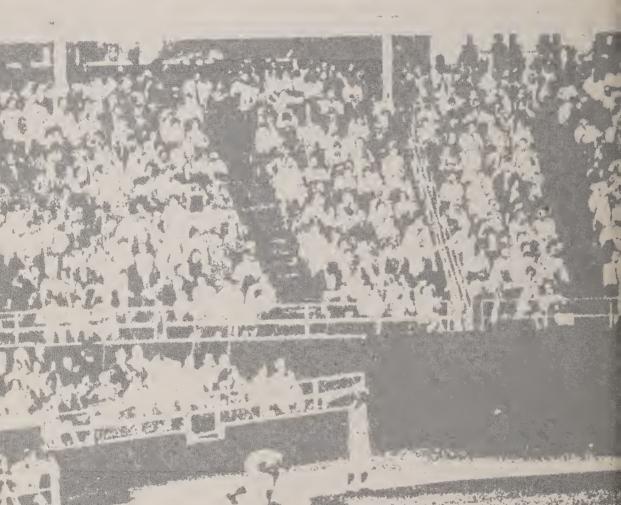

In addition to its 10-camera complement, NBC Sports will also be utilizing three slow motion machines, a pair of video-tape recorders, one vidifont machine and a slide projector to enhance the coverage.

An added feature for 1975 will be an Announcer's Camera, so designated from among the ten on hand and used exclusively to follow the objects of commentary in the broadcast booth without direction from the control truck. This innovation will provide the viewer with an instantaneous liaison between what the commentator says and the picture on the television set. More than 50,000,000 persons are expected to watch NBC's prime-time mid-week telecasts, which will be preceded by the award-winning "Baseball World of Joe Garagiola" (also before the weekend Series telecasts).

Curt Gowdy, Joe Garagiola and Tony Kubek, along with designated announcer representatives from each of the two league champions, will describe the action for both the NBC Television and Radio Networks. Gowdy, who has done each World Series for NBC-TV since 1966, will alternate on television and radio with Garagiola.

All told the 1975 World Series—as so many Fall Classics have done before-will provide memorable moments and baseball thrills to a worldwide audience, most of which will receive its verbal or video picture through National Broadcasting Company transmissions.
